

CAUSE NUMBER 00

THE STATE OF TEXAS	§	IN THE COUNTY CRIMINAL
V.	§	COURT AT LAW NUMBER 00
DEFENDANT	§	OF HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

MEMBERS OF THE JURY:

You have found the Defendant, name, guilty of the offense of driving while intoxicated. It now becomes your duty to assess punishment.

In addition, the information alleges the Defendant has been at least once before convicted of the offense of driving while intoxicated. To this allegation, the Defendant pleaded "Not True." You now must determine whether this allegation is true beyond a reasonable doubt and assess punishment.

The prosecution has the burden of proving the allegations in the penalty paragraphs beyond a reasonable doubt. The prosecution does not have to prove the allegations in the penalty paragraphs beyond all possible doubt. The prosecution's proof must exclude all "reasonable doubt" concerning the penalty paragraphs.

A "conviction" means there are no pending appeals.

Now bearing in mind the foregoing instructions, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant, name, was convicted on date in Cause Number 00, in the name of court of name of county County, Texas, for the offense of driving while intoxicated, and that said conviction was a final conviction prior to the commission of the offense for which you have found the Defendant guilty, then you must so find and assess the Defendant's punishment at confinement in county jail for any term of not less than 30 days or more than one year. In addition to confinement, you may assess a fine not to exceed four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars.

However, if you do not find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant is a repeat offender, you must assess his punishment at confinement in county jail for any term of not less than 72 hours or more than 180 days. In addition to confinement, you may assess a fine not to exceed two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars.

You are further instructed that in fixing the Defendant's punishment, which you will show in your verdict, you may consider all of the facts shown by the evidence admitted before you in the full trial of this case, all of the evidence admitted before you in the punishment phase of this case, and the law submitted to you in this charge.

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses and of the weight to be given the testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the court, which is herein given to you, and be governed thereby. In arriving at the amount of punishment, you are not to fix the same by lot, chance or any other method than by a full, fair and free exercise of the opinion of the individual jurors.

After the court reads this charge, you may not separate from each other without the court's permission, nor may you talk with anyone who is not a member of your jury regarding this case. After argument of counsel, you must retire and select one of your members as a foreperson. The foreperson's duty is to preside at your deliberations and to vote with you in arriving at a unanimous verdict. After you have arrived at your verdict, you must have your foreperson indicate the jury's verdict by signing the particular form or forms that coincide with your verdict.

After you have retired to consider your verdict, no one has any authority to communicate with you except the officer who has you in charge. You may communicate with the court in writing, signed by your foreperson, through the officer who has you in charge. Do not attempt to talk to the officer, the attorney's, or the court concerning questions you may have.
